

Simon is a Community Cultural Development practitioner, business owner and change maker who has worked with various community's in Australia for lasting social change. Originally from Zimbabwe, Simon now lives in Australia where over the last 15 years he has worked in executive roles in the not-for-profit sector as well as operated a number of businesses including a theatre production company.

Some of Simon's previous notable roles include being CEO of one of the largest community-based foundations in Australia, as well as State program manager in the Victorian government where he managed a $14million dollar funding portfolio.

Simon is also an accomplished writer, performance director and some of his works have been performed to critical acclaim in Australia and are now published. He is currently the Managing Director of Simon Tengende Studio, a business consultancy focusing on accelerating business strategies as well as codesigning corporate rituals.

simontengende.studio